

City Council Denies Use Of Police To Greet New Residents; PHA Silent

By I. J. Parker

Police officers will not be used by a local "welcome wagon" group, the city council decided at last Monday's regular meeting. Council members forbade city-manager Charles McDonald to participate in the plan to greet new residents in town with gifts from local businesses, brochures describing the city and its laws, and general information about the local churches, civic and business groups. The policemen were to visit the homes of newcomers and act as "greeters" for the group.

Mayor Frank Lastner stated, "I can't see the use of police as goodwill ambassadors to represent business organizations." Other council members declared that the police staff was too small and too valuable for such a service; police should be on the alert at all times and near their police cars.

No Reply Yet

No reply has been received from the Public Housing Administration to a request from the council for a meeting to re-negotiate the budget contract in order to reinstate kindergarten in September, it was disclosed. A report by McDonald on the possibility of cutting other budget items to finance the $6500 needed for kindergarten was cancelled because of the delay by PHA. (It was learned informally that about $2550 was to be suggested, but some council members were unwilling to approve some of the cuts which might be made.) Reluctance to take sums from the budget for kindergarten use was expressed by Councilman Thomas Canning and Ben Goldfaden, unless PHA indicated it would include the entire kindergarten figure in the 1953 budget. However, if PHA agreed to restore the entire figure next year, Councilman Steve Comings "promised" to find the money for the fall term of kindergarten in this year's budget.

Women Attend

About ten members of the National Council of Jewish Women attended the council meeting. According to one member, it was part of a program to familiarize themselves with council functions.

Consideration of a new traffic code, discussed at several past meetings and delayed because of more important business, was again delayed until a special meeting on that subject alone in the near future.

("What if PHA refuses to discuss the kindergarten service for 1953, and asks council to find available funds in this year's budget for the fall term of kindergarten? Would you approve taking such sums from other services?" This question was asked council members following the meeting. Goldfaden replied, "No comment"; Canning, "Probably"; Comings, "Very reluctant"; Lastner, "I don't think so"; Wolfe, "I would!")

Waltonians Plan To Clean Up Lake With Help Of State, City Council

By E. Don Bullian

President Jack Swisher of the local Izaak Walton League has arranged meetings with the State Inland Game and Fisheries Commission and the city council on one of the most elaborate projects ever undertaken by the Greenbelt Chapter. On Thursday afternoon, March 13, at 2 p.m., they will discuss ways and means of cleaning the Greenbelt Lake. At the last meeting of the Izaak Walton League, the League unanimously agreed to call on the American Legion, Athletic Club and the Boy Scouts to assist in this project.

In addition to the meeting with the State Division, Swisher has arranged a meeting with the city

The City Desk

(Ed. note: Beginning with this issue, an article prepared by the City Manager will appear regularly under the above caption.)

(Special to the Cooperator)

The intent of these reports is to inform the citizenry of the functions of the several departments of the municipal government; to explain some of the ordinances, the purposes and benefits to the community; and in general, to keep the citizens informed of the affairs of the city government.

The Municipal Government operates through a charter granted by the legislature of the State of Maryland. This charter sets up a council-manager form of government in which five councilmen are elected by the citizens of Greenbelt. The councilmen choose one of their number to be Mayor, and select a city manager to administer the affairs of the city.

This duly-elected governing body has been granted the power to enact and enforce ordinances for the good government, public health, safety and morals of the city, and to authorize, empower and direct the establishment of annual levies of the assessable value of land and personal property of the City of Greenbelt for the purpose of defraying governmental expenses of the city.

The City Council meets in public session on the first and third Mondays of each month in the City Offices. The meetings are presided over by the Mayor, and are called to order promptly at 8 p.m. An agenda of the meeting is posted in the Post Office on the Friday before each meeting.

New Clothing Drive for Needy

The Ladies of Charity of Greenbelt are again in need of clothing for men, women and children; shoes, bedding, and small household items, for assistance in their work of helping the needy of Greenbelt and the county, according to Mrs. James Flynn, president of the group. Anyone having anything which may be used may have contributions picked up by calling Mrs. Thomas Callanan, Greenbelt 4878.

Cooperator's Story On WCFM Broadcast

Radio listeners tuned to WCFM, 99.5, last Monday at 7:45 heard the story of the Greenbelt Cooperator. The program was one of the series, "Co-ops At Work," sponsored by local cooperatives through the Potomac Cooperative Federation.

Each week the program presents some dramatic incident in the growth of cooperatives here or abroad; last Monday's program, produced by Florence Bayreuther with a French cast, concerned a cooperative community in France where laborers operate their own factory.

The co-op "commercial" told about cooperative publication of the Greenbelt newspaper. Mention was made of civic projects aided by the paper and also of the essay contest and bridge tournament it sponsored recently. The Cooperator was described as an independent community newspaper, completely manned by volunteers—the only one in the United States which has been continuously published by volunteers over a fourteen-year period.

GVHC Board Approves Sale Contract, Lists Monthly Charges For Tenants

By Ralph and Carolyn Miller

Pushing to keep to their timetable, the Greenbelt Veterans' Housing Corporation board held two special meetings within six days to complete a contract which will govern the sale of homes by the corporation.

More accurately, the contract will represent the member's "right to perpetual use" of the dwelling unit, rather than his outright ownership.

The contract, drawn up by legal committee chairman, Bernard J. Bordenet, was approved by the board of directors last Monday night subject to review and editing. It will be submitted for membership approval at a forthcoming meeting.

Bloodmobile Unit Coming March 28

The Bloodmobile of the American Red Cross, Prince Georges County chapter, will be in Greenbelt at the Center school auditorium on Thursday, March 27, from 2 to 7 p.m. Recruitment chairman for the drive will be Mrs. Andrew V. Davis, president of the Truman Riddle Navy Wives, assisted by members of her organization in making appointments and obtaining donors. Anyone wishing to make an appointment or desiring other information concerning the donation of blood may contact Mrs. Davis at GR. 5361.

Other committee chairmen are: Mrs. James Beck, canteen; Mrs. Ralph G. Neumann, clerical staff; Mrs. O. M. Slye, publicity. The County Chapter provides extra clerical and canteen workers when needed. A full staff of doctors, nurses, orderlies and skilled technicians travel with the Bloodmobile so that top medical skill is available in the donation center at all times.

All donors are provided a card with their blood type and RH factor. Before anyone is allowed to donate blood a careful examination is made so that only those who are well able to give may do so. The amount of blood usually taken from a donor is one pint, but half-pints are taken from those who wish to donate but who are smaller than average. There is a continuing need for blood to meet the requirements arising from the conflict in Korea, to stockpile for emergency defense use and for ordinary everyday hospital use.

6 Frosh Elected Directors By GCS

For the first time in the history of Greenbelt Consumer Services, a write-in candidate ran for the board of directors. Elected on the second ballot, Harry Zubkoff, whose name did not appear on the ballot and whose candidacy was announced at the beginning of the meeting, offered a platform based on the premise that "what is good for the members is good for the co-op."

Morris Solomon, author of the Cooperator's "Dollars and Sense" column, advocate of more policy-making by the board and improved consumer services, was the leading candidate with 37 first-place votes. Walter Eierwagen, incumbent president; William Arntz and Charles A. Bicking, new Takoma members; Henry Walter, Calman Winegarden, Sam Schwimer and George Davidson were the remaining successful candidates.

Over 200 GCS and Takoma members at the Greenbelt theater last night voted to amend the laws, after considerable discussion in almost every case, to effect an increase in capitalization from $550,000; to change the beginning of the fiscal year to February with meeting dates changing accordingly; tabled an amendment. See GCS, page 8.

Transfer of Units

Under the provisions of the proposed contract, members of the corporation may sell their "right of perpetual use" in a dwelling unit to another person, provided that the corporation waives its option to purchase this perpetual-use right.

The unit may not be sold at a profit, however, within a period of two years from the date of purchase, except that if a member has made permanent improvements in the house he may add the cost of these to the selling price.

This stipulation is designed to prevent immediate speculative operations in Greenbelt, according to the board of directors. After the two-year period, houses may be sold at an increase in the purchase price.

Another clause in the proposed contract provides for the subletting of a member's unit. A member may, during periods of temporary absence, sublet his unit but not at a profit to himself. He may, however, charge additional rent for repairs or redecoration necessary in order to sublet the unit. This additional rent must be approved by the board of directors of the housing corporation.

According to the proposed contract, a member has the right to cancel his contract subject to certain conditions. One of these is that the member will be entitled to his equity only upon the sale of his unit by the corporation to another person. Also, the unpaid balance of the member's purchase price at the time of the termination of the contract will be deducted from the equity, as well as cost of repairs and redecoration to put the unit into shape for the next occupant, and the loss of any revenue to the corporation for the period the house is vacant.

Meeting With GCS

In addition to completing the contract, the board discussed the report of Earl Thomas on his meeting with two representatives from the Greenbelt Consumer Services board, and voted to meet formally with the GCS board on the disposition of the undeveloped commercial properties within a half-mile radius of the center. Thomas said that GCS was interested in renting the stores at the center from a "friendly landlord" and might be of assistance in lending the required down payment on the center property to GVHC.

Among recommendations that may be presented to the membership meeting is a ten-day period of grace for monthly payments with a penalty fee of $1.00 if not paid by that time. It was also recommended that closed garages be sold with the attached unit, and that the corporation be authorized to operate a garage.

Individual Reports

Treasurer Thomas Ritchie reported that clerical work has begun on transferring monthly charge data on new Greenbelt homes from the official record to individual forms which will be used for billing. See GCS, page 8.

Trattler Chatter

By Pauline Trattler
Gr-3762

Hi - As yet I have not received any word from the "Star" about the Greenbelt column, so I am taking it for granted that they will continue to run it. So please, dear people, keep sending me all the news you hear. Thanks! . . . IT'S a boy for Mr. and Mrs. Dudrow, of East Riverdale. (Mrs. D. is Dot-tie Herbert.) Little James Stephen checked in on February 29 at 7 lbs. 3 oz. (Wonder how they'll keep track of his birthdays?) . . .

AND as long as I'm writing about the Herbert family would like to mention that Walter Herbert, Sonny Brezina, and Earl Snyder will be reporting for training at Sampson, New York, on March 7. (Lots of luck, boys, and drop us a card if you get a second.) . . . Little Allen Ray Brautigam, 1-B Southway, celebrated his seventh birthday Sunday, in real cowboy style. All the decorations were Hopalong Cassidy styles, with games and refreshments in same. (Bet the kids had fun.) . . . IT'S another boy for Mr. and Mrs. Francis Springman, 36-C Ridge, born on Sunday. This makes it very nice, as now they have four boys and four girls. (Let us know when you name the baby.) . . . Mrs. Lydalu Palmer, 1-D Eastway, had a welcome visitor last weekend. It was her son Richard A. Palmer who is stationed at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana. Richard, who is an instructor in finance at the school, brought his friend with him, Corp. Howard Orleans, from Chicago, Illinois. Corp. Howard is also an instructor at the school. . . . MISS Harriett Bloomberg, who lives in New York, visited her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Max Bloomberg, over last weekend. Due to so much illness, which kept Dr. Bloomberg busy, poor Harriett wasn't able to do much sight-seeing around Washington. (Cheer up, next time maybe?) . . . JUST a note to let all the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Phelps, that they have reached their destination, Denver Colorado, and are getting settled. Their trip across the country was very interesting and the children (four) did fine. (Lots of luck, Bob and Helen, and everyone here sends love.) . . . MRS. Mary Welsh, Mrs. Laura Hammer, Mrs. Doris Houlihan and Lois Dunn visited Jacksonville, Florida, last week to see Raymond Welsh, who is stationed at the Naval Air Station. From there they all visited the old Spanish Castle in St. Augustine. Next they journeyed to Daytona Beach to see the motorcycle races, but were disappointed to find that the races were called off due to rain. Miss Dunn and Mr. Welsh became formally engaged during the trip. On March 11 Raymond Welsh will leave for Pensacola, where he will complete his training as Aerial Photographer. (Bet there was a lot of excitement on that trip. Loads of luck, to Lois and Raymond). . . .

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Horstman, who announce the marriage of their daughter Eugenia Maye to John Vinfield Likens, of U. S. Coast Guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Likens. The marriage took place at the Community Church. Reverend Eric Braund performed the ceremony. A reception followed in the church parlor. Ushers were Harold Hammersla and Graham Houlton. Mrs. Gordon Finlay played the wedding march. James Hanna, U. S. Navy, was best man. The bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white lace, and a shoulder-length veil. The maid of honor was Irma Jane Stuart, who wore a gown of blue lace with hat to match. Both carried nosegay bouquets of roses. Out-of-town guests attending the affair were Mrs. Nora Crouch and Mrs. Florence Horstman of Hoberg, Missouri. (Lots of luck to two nice kids.) . . . That does it for this week, and please don't forget to keep me informed of your social events. Thanks.

Boys Club Activities

By Lee

Last week in the semi-finals of the Prince Georges County Recreation basketball tournament, the Midgets defeated St. Bernards 63 to 6. Hi scorer was Taylor with 26 points. This advanced them to the finals which were to be played Saturday but the games were postponed due to weather conditions. The 135 lb. team came out champions of the Tournament by defeating Green Meadows in a close one 29 to 26, Stu Knott was hi with 10 points. This gave them the Championship in the weight class. It's pretty certain that the Midgets will win their final game also which will give them a championship in the 85 lb. class. Both teams entered in this tournament will have come thru without a defeat if the Midgets (85 lb. team) win their final game.

In the County League games last Thursday the Seniors were defeated in an overtime game by Green Meadows, 227 to 26 and on Tuesday 39-38 against the same team. Tuesday evening the Midgets defeated the Beltsville Midgets by the amazing score of 115 to 7. (This is a new record for scoring for any Greenbelt Boy's Club basketball team.) The Midgets play only 6-minute quarters, and in four six-minute quarters they scored the amazing total of 115 points with thirteen out of the fifteen players scoring. These Midgets are demonstrating that they certainly know where the basket is and how to hit it. Hi scorers were Brown 20, Rock 18 and McGlothlin 16.

All Boy's Club Night

Coming up March 29 is that big annual event, ALL BOY'S CLUB NIGHT. Plan ahead now to keep Saturday night, March 29 open for this event. We are planning a big evening with plenty of basketball, Majorettes, Band, and a very serious basketball game between members of the Board of Directors and the various coaches which should be a scream. Admission will be only 25c for everyone and we are sure you will really enjoy the show. Soft drinks will be available for those who desire them. A complete program of the events will be published in a future edition of the Cooperator before March 29.

A little inside info: It is tentatively planned to have a big Boy's Club Boxing show during the early part of April. Outstanding boxers in their weight class in various clubs in the Metropolitan area will be matched with our own outstanding boxers. Look for future notice. See you next week.

Band to Star at Opening

The Greenbelt Senior Band has been invited to pay at the opening of the Langley Park Theater on March 12, from 6:15 to 7:15 p.m. All members of the band are to report in uniform at the center school at 5:30, with their instruments. A bus will be furnished for transportation. After the concert the band will be invited to see the movies, as guests of the management.

JCC Purim Festival

The JCC will hold a Purim Festival and Costume Ball on Saturday, March 8, starting at 8:30 p.m. at the Center school auditorium. A King and Queen of the Festival will be chosen, and prizes will be awarded for the most original costumes, as well as a door prize.

In the absence of general manager Sam Ashelman, ill with the flu, assistant Bassett Ferguson gave a streamlined manager's report.

Among the issues arousing most controversy was the raising of the capitalization limit, which some members wished to modify by providing that the capital be used strictly to pay off present loans to banks and to Farm Bureau. The motion on extra-city enterprises also stirred opinion. Despite efforts by management and the board to adhere to a planned schedule, door prizes were being given away close to midnight.

FROM THE CUSTOMERS SIDE OF THE COUNTER

Whether it's 7 ozs. of liver or half a ham, there is something personal about every purchase from Co-op's self-service meat department. From the customer's side of the counter, the whole operation is open to view, and who likes to shop through a wall. Here it takes only a minute to catch the eye of one of the meat cutters for that special cut not in the case.

How Much Meat

More than 13,000 lbs. of meat slips into the shopper's basket during the average week. What is in each package?—any one of 200 different cuts. Hams and Pork Loins, however, are highest on the list of attractive consumer buys. Rockingham poultry products are also growing in popularity. But the difference between success and failure in the meat business lies in one word—quality. Customer demand is strongest for only the prime and choice cuts.

Shopper's Tip

At today's high prices, the one problem common to all is how far the dollars stretch without losing any emphasis on eating pleasure. According to Pete Caruso, store and meat manager, pork is the best buy from the first frost through January. Fish is good during the winter, and lamb is usually a good spring buy. Pete who has had close to 25 years in the meat business can cook anything he has to sell. To the economy minded his recommendation is Plate Beef. It may lack glamor, but at 39c lb., it doesn't lack nutrition. Try it in hash, or broiled with noodles, braised with potatoes, and in soup. For stews there is breast of lamb at only 19c lb. which should take the edge off any appetite.

In the fish line, any of the fillets are good. The most expensive is only 49c lb. Now that two new cases are being installed, capacity of the department will be almost four times as great. The cases are of the self-service type and both higher quality and faster service will now be available to patrons.

WARNING WARNING

Don't put off buying those tires. Our special low sale price will not continue much longer. Already other people have been by, and in February alone they purchased over $4600.00 worth of tires. That's a lot of tires.

REMEMBER — Prices on both Firestone Champion and Good-year Marathon, sizes 670x15 and 600x16 are at rock bottom. You will see them advertised all over the place, in magazines, in the newspapers and on Television, and you won't find prices lower than ours in the whole Washington Area.

OTHER TIRES — As long as the sale lasts, we are also offering attractive values on other popular tires. It's your choice of either a 10% discount or a new tube free with each tire purchase.
